

Introduction

Jesus told us in John 14:27, “Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be fearful.” One thing for sure, there will be many opportunities in life for us to be both troubled and fearful. Some will go through much worse storms than my wife, Shelley, and I have ever had to endure.

Speaking from our experience, Jesus Christ is the only place where you and I can find a peace unlike any this world has to offer. Our prayer is that this small morsel of our story may encourage those who are suffering with the Lord’s matchless hope and life. He truly cares for you.

I have written our journey, starting with Shelley’s stroke, in my first book I ever wrote entitled “The Resurrected Bride.” It was in the storm, at her darkest moment, when the Lord’s miraculous healing had already begun.

It was also during this time when the Lord really began to share with me His heart in regards to the cleansing and purifying of His bride, the church, at the end of this age. I have been continuously studying and writing it seems since this time. If you are interested in reading these multiple revelations, go to our website at www.capstone-ministries.com.

We praise the Lord for the great things He has done and will continue to do for His name's sake, not ours. May our story be used for His glory.

Tim Bauer