

Introduction

This is one of my favorite pictures from my trip to South Sudan in April, 2015. I'm standing in the boat that carried the first missionaries down the Nile River in 1905 to the village of Malek. The steel structure it's resting on was the base for their home. The Lord will soon bring to completion the good work they began.

The revelation He gave me regarding His plans for this struggling, new nation started before I left America. He confirmed what He began in my heart once I set foot on their soil. I hear His call for South Sudan to rise up and soar. But first, there is a great revival that will come and cleanse the blessed Sudanese vessels who will carry God's glory.

The Lord also revealed to me that those who have been known as "the Lost Boys of Sudan" are now "The Men of Hope" for their nation. During their relocation to other countries they have matured, learning valuable skills that their nation needs to bring order out of the current chaos within their society. The Lord is now calling them back home.

The coming revival will also deal with the tribalism that plagues South Sudan. The Holy Spirit will quickly change the hearts of many, bringing the unity necessary to bring God's will to completion for their land. It is only at this point that they may fulfill their national anthem that begins by declaring;

*"Oh God!
We Praise and glorify You
For your grace on South Sudan,
Land of great abundance
Uphold us united in peace and harmony
Oh motherland!"*

Prepare your hearts by faith, South Sudan. Your Deliverer is coming!

This tree was planted in Malek, South Sudan years ago. It was said that if it flourishes, Christianity will flourish in Sudan. If it dies, Christianity will die. As you can see, the tree has flourished! In 1905 missionaries brought the good news of Jesus Christ to Sudan right behind this tree which sits on the bank of the Nile River.

In April, 2015, I had the privilege of traveling to South Sudan. During this time, the Lord revealed to me His plan for this new nation before His return. It involves calling the lost boys (and women) back home, and an outpouring of His reviving Spirit. In fact, He revealed to me that they are no longer “the lost boys,” but in fact “The Men of Hope”! They are the ones who must come home and use their newly obtained skills and education to help rebuild South Sudan.

In the coming revival, tribalism will be removed. Like Israel as they entered their Promised Land, Jesus will circumcise the hearts of their people, resulting in true unity under One Chief; the Lord Jesus Christ. United by the Holy Spirit, they will rise up as one and do great exploits on earth. I believe the last nation to be birthed by God will be the first nation to receive the best wine of the Lord (John 2:1-11) saved for those who will bring glory to God in the final harvest of mankind.
